THE HUNGARIAN PLAYBOOK

THE HUNGARIAN PLAYBOOK

Director: Bence Máté Production: Florian Schewe, FILM FIVE (Germany)

The Hungarian Playbook follows the heroic struggle of a handful of young journalists against the propaganda machine of prime minister Viktor Orbán, which is becoming a role model across national borders. They are insiders who turned against the system.

The jury's choice

"We found it difficult to choose just one film as we were quite impressed with the breadth and quality of the twelve selected projects. Ultimately, we felt The Hungarian Playbook stood out in its coverage of a timely and urgent story that is not only important in Hungary, but in all of Europe and across the globe", commented Lauren Ezell Kinlaw. "The project speaks to the threat posed by the rise of far-right movements and autocratic leaders in countries around the world, and the courage of journalists fighting both within and outside the system."
